Article 4 Advance

Advance payments shall not be authorised.

Article 5 Language, currency and regulations

This contract is written in English.

The language used for the contract procedure is English. All deliverables have to be provided in English, suitable for consumption by a multinational audience. The Currency is Euro.

Article 6 Penalties

In lieu of actual damage the Contractor shall pay to NRDC-GREECE as fixed, agreed and liquidated damages:

- For each calendar day without participation to the MELMIL workshops, 5% of the total contract price, to a maximum of 40% of the contract price.
- For each calendar day without Grey Cell or with insufficient performances during the exercise 16% of the total contract price.
- For each calendar day of delay for the reports, 2% of the total contract price, to a maximum of 10% of the contract price.

Article 7 Termination for convenience

1. Termination for convenience: the performance of work under the contract may be terminated by NRDC-GR in accordance with this clause in whole, or in part, whenever the Contracting Officer shall determine that such termination is the best interest of NRDC-GR. Any such termination shall be effected by delivery to the Contractor of a Notice of Termination specifying the extent to which performance of work under the contract is terminated and the date upon which such termination becomes effective. After receipt of a Notice of Termination and except as otherwise directed by the Contracting Officer, the Contractor shall stop work under the contract on the date and to the extent specified in the Notice of Termination.

2. Termination for default: NRDC-GR may be written notice of default to the Contractor, terminate the whole or any part of the contract if any one of the following circumstances:

- If the Contractor fails to make delivery of the supplies or to perform the services within the time specified herein or any extension therefore
- If the Contractor fails to perform any of the other provisions of the contract, or so fails to make progress as to endanger performance of the contract in accordance with its terms and in either of these two circumstances does not cure such failure within a period of two days (or such longer period as the Contracting Officer may authorize in writing) after receipt of notice from the Contracting Officer specifying such failure.

3. Special termination: if at any time while the Contract is in force either party finds itself in one of the following situations:

- Death, unexpected incapacity or extinction of its legal entity.
- Declaration of bankruptcy, reorganization of debts, take over by a trustee, or any other legal status implying lack of capacity to enter new financial liabilities.
- Change of activity in such a manner that it becomes incompatible with the purpose of the Contract.

Then the other party shall be entitled to terminate the Contract upon giving written notice of termination under the provisions of this clause to the other party. Such termination shall not be considered a termination for convenience and shall be effective on the date stated on the notice of termination.

Article 8 Insurance

The incumbent must be covered by an insurance policy valid for the duration of the contract against the financial consequences of civil liability it may incur for damage of any kind, tangible and intangible, direct or indirect caused during the execution of services.

It is understood that NRDC-GR cannot be held responsible for accidents happening to members of the contractor's personnel. The Contractor is therefore required to insure his personnel and vehicles against all accidents, in conformity with Greek legal requirements. In this manner, NRDC-GR declines all responsibility concerning theft, disappearance or damage, which could happen to machines, equipment or material utilized in the execution of the present contract and stored on military premises.

Article 9 Dispute

All disputes arising out of the performance of the contract will be settled through amicable settlement between the Contracting Officer and the Contractor.

Should the Contracting Officer and the Contractor fail to come to an amicable settlement of the dispute, the dispute will be settled in the competent Court of the Host Nation, arbitration councils included, unless otherwise specified in the contract. In case of using the judicial avenue, the Contractor shall waive the coverage of those courts corresponding to its fiscal residence in order to rise before the competent Host Nation Court.
